

Jodi Schwartz PBC State Committee Woman

Jodi Schwartz is Palm Beach County's State Committeewoman and represents the County at the Republican Party of Florida. She has been actively working for years to help get Republicans elected in Palm Beach County. She has volunteered on races at all levels from City Commissioner to US Congress. She has also served in multiple leadership roles in the Palm Beach Republican Executive Committee, including Deputy Director of Election Operations and Regional Director. She has been married to Duane since 2003 and they have two kids, Andrew and Hannah. Her goal is to strengthen the local Republican Party by working with local candidates, volunteers, and elected officials, as well as State and National Leaders.